PREFACE

This report is one in a series on Soviet Ground Force and Logistic installations being prepared for a DIA/CIA Panel. The series is being coordinated, published and disseminated by NPIC. The photographic analysis is being performed by the NPIC Photographic Analysis Group, the CIA Photographic Intelligence Division (NPIC), and the Production Center 1P1c (DIA). The photographic analysis for this particular report was performed by the Production Center 1P1c.

In the interest of uniformity, the titles and letter designators for the facilities observed at these installations are identical with those appearing in the project requirement. When a specific facility is not observed both its title and letter designator are omitted in the report.

Titles and letter designators for the various facilities are as follows: (A) railroad service, (B) road service, (C) landing strips, (D) administrative and troop housing areas, (E) storage areas, (F) ammunition storage areas, (G) POL storage areas, (H) other buildings and facilities, (J) equipment storage/maintenance areas, (K) athletic fields, (L) small arms firing ranges, (M) driver training areas, (N) tank/assault gun firing ranges, (P) flat trajectory firing ranges, (Q) artillery emplacements (batteries), (R) infantry or combined arms field training areas or courses, (S) special training facilities, (T) unidentified facilities or tracking activity.

SUMMARY

A road-served military installation covering 230 acres is located on the north side of Brody (Figure 1). Brody Airfield is 1.5 kilometers (km) southeast of the installation.

Visible in the area (Figures 2 and 3) are long, single- and multistory barracks, administration buildings, a possible drill hall with an associated oval track, storage buildings, and a small motor pool. North of the installation are two small arms ranges and a pistol range. To the east is a large training area with a figure-8 driver training course.

A communications site associated with this military installation is located 1,000 meters north in a fenced, wooded area.

The installation was covered by [redacted] 25X1
[redacted] missions between [redacted] 25X1

DESCRIPTION OF INSTALLATION

Road Service

The primary Brody-Dubno road passes adjacent to the installation.

Aircraft Landing Strip

Brody Airfield is 1.5 km southeast of the installation.

Administrative and Troop Housing Area

Area D contains 10 multistory barracks, one T-shaped multistory administration building, and five barracks.

General Storage Area

Area E contains four single-story buildings.

Other Buildings

A possible athletic building (H1) or drill hall is near the oval track in Area D. A small communications building (H2) is located at an antenna field north of the barracks area.

Equipment Storage/Maintenance Area

A 600- by 470-foot motor pool and one 180- by 60-foot maintenance building are located in Area J.

Athletic Field

An oval track (K) is located in front of the administration building.

Small Arms Firing Ranges

Area L contains three ranges, one approximately 1,200 by 130 feet, one 650 by 170 feet and one a 280- by 60-foot pistol range with a horseshoe-shaped butt.

Driver Training Area

Area M is a vehicle driver training course located in a training area (R) east of the barracks area.
